[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCT. 5.

EASTERN STATES.

Yacht Sailing.

NEW YORK, October 4.—Ashbury, owner of the yacht Livonia, says her business is to carry back to England the Queen's cup upon which he is determined. He objects to sail in the yacht club course, as he wishes to test the merits of the boats and not that of the pilots or sailing masters. He will go to Newport, if agreeable, and sail the Black Island course back. He would prefer to have keel boats sail against him. The Livonia will be put on the stocks to-morrow for repairs. By Wednesday next she will be in full readiness to start in the races.

New York Democratic Convention.

ROCHESTER, October 4.—There appears to be great satisfaction with the action both of the Tammany delegation and the Convention. While the former claim they have defeated the determined effort to break their power as an organization, the latter wing feel that they have discharged their duty in purging their body of any taint which was likely to attach to it by affiliation with the latter.

A permanent organization of the Democratic Convention was effected at the evening session by the election of Clarkson N. Potter as President, with the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. A number of resolutions were offered.

Fires in Wisconsin.

GREEN BAY, Oct. 4.—The fires now prevailing in six or seven of the northeastern counties of Wisconsin have never had any parallel since the settlement of the country. The drought which has prevailed since early in August dried up the springs and streams and all vegetation, and has parched the ground to such a depth below the surface that the soil itself now acts as conductor. Living trees are now falling from the action of the fire, which has undermined them. All outstanding property is swept away, there being so little water to stop fire that barns, haystacks and other property are burned. No resistance can be offered to the approaching fires. No authentic account is received of the loss of a family in Kewaunee county. Some Indians are reported to be burned.

Illinois Politics.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The Democratic State Convention met at Springfield to-day to nominate a candidate for Congress for the State at large. Hon. S. S. Hayes, a lawyer of this city, was nominated by acclamation.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Labor Strikes.

LONDON, October 4.—Shipwrights of the Clyde who joined the nine hour league have been locked out by their employers.

Spanish Affairs.

MADRID, October 4.—King Amadeus has telegraphed to Espartero requesting him to form a new cabinet.

Senor, Scorrilla was serenaded to-night by a large mass of citizens. Cries were made of "Death to Traitors." It was proposed by Scorrila to march on the Royal Palace, and by Scorrilla to put a stop to the movement. The Progressists' leader, Tortules, offered to support Scorrilla, and telegraphed to the Provinces calling on them to declare for Radical ideas.

French Affairs.

VERSAILLES, October 4.—The city of Paris has voted two million francs to repair the monuments and public buildings damaged during the reign of the Commune.

MEXICO.

Political News.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 30.—The election is completed. Juarez has a majority. It is believed no important revolution movement will follow the result. Confidence is restored in all parts of the Republic.

There has been some commotion in Oaxaca in consequence of the report that partisans of Diaz were plotting to compel a session of the States of Oaxaca, Chiapas and Tabasco, by combining with the malcontents of Guatemala, revolutionizing that Republic and forming an independent government by a union with the southern States of Mexico.

The Democratic Morgue.

THE CORPSES THAT ARE NOT AVAILABLE FOR '72.

Our Democratic cotemporaries are still going among political cemeteries in search of some available candidate for the Presidency. To be very dead is the one qualification above all others. On digging up their subject and unscrewing his coffin, the usual tests, including salts of ammonia, assafœtida, burnt feathers, and the crucial Democratic tests, the smell of whisky, are applied, and if there is any stir, any consciousness, and knowledge of anything transpiring in this age, the party is screwed up, labeled "to be tried in 1880," and re-lowered. The devotion to the departed is seen in some New Jersey resurrectionists, who have exhumed Geo. B. McClellan. He answers well; there is nothing lively; he preserves dignified inertia; and perhaps may be sufficiently fragrant in his memories to satisfy the demands of his worshippers.

The late John T. Hoffman is also exhibited at the Democratic morgue. Beside him are the shelalahs of the anti-Orange mob and the keys of Tammany, symbols of his sudden taking off. His decease is undisputed, but the Irish are most emphatic in their objurations that he is not only dead, but by this time he also—(see John's Gospel, chap. xi, v. 39, and the latter clause.)

Another band, with spade, mattock and dark lantern, and musty odor, came forward with the remains of the late Salmon P. Chase. They conceded that in this man's life-time he was an abolitionist, a Lincoln hireling, the legal tenders, the wholesale manufacturer of bonds to be paid in coin, the adviser of the Emancipation Proclamation, the advocate of the Thirteenth Amendment, but they say all that was when he was alive. Standing over his bones, they triumphantly ask: "Who has heard from his lips for four years anything at all resembling his ancient words? Who has known him through that time, say aught to remind the land of his bold, brave lifetime. He is dead as Julius Cæsar." All true, but the fear is that somehow he might come to life again, and do strange pushing among Democratic stools.

Some parade ostentatiously the remains of Reverdy Johnson, who died from an overdose of English roast beef and plum pudding. Hic jacet. Reverdy's bones are not marketable. By a costly casket, overspread with a pall of royal velvet, stand a few kid-gloved watchers beside the remains of Gentleman George Pendleton. His is a very genteel corpse. It is well embalmed, and is not so offensive as some others.

The liveliest corpse is Frank Blair's. It has been galvanized so highly that its contortions are hideous, from the slips issue strange discurs-ive sounds. His watchers are seated at a table loaded with buttered water-melon and their wake-ful glee is strangely dissonant with the solemnity of the hour. They pledge that never again will his tones thunder, as in days of yore, against the enormities of the slave-power; never again will he utter scathing denunciations of butternut or copperhead; never will his sword, now put out of sight, gleam again in the fore front of the armies of freedom; but that only an armed crusade to overthrow the last three amendments of the Constitution can call it from its scabbard.

Some go to Doolittle's coffin, but there is only a little dust, and in the relics no sign of backbone is found.—Indianapolis Journal.

Gold placer diggings have been found near the Emma mines in Utah, and one man in two days washed out $500 worth of dust. Two hundred thousand dollars have been offered for a mine in Cottonwood that was discovered only two weeks ago.

Woman Suffrage and its Advocates.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: In a former article on this subject in speaking of Theodore Tilton, the word minister was used instead of editor. He was the chief of the New York Independent, the organ of the Congregational Church, for a number of years, but after a time, under his management it slid into Pantheism, and was denounced by a convention of ministers, the Advance of Chicago, (newly started at that time) being designated as the organ. While Mr. Tilton was editor of the Independent, he acquired a reputation in literature and an influence on the side of right, second to none on this continent. This is our reply to the column of abuse published in last week's New Northwest.

With the exception of the Christian Union, we have not read a woman suffrage paper but what has at some time or other, put forth ideas, indirectly perhaps, corrupting to the Christian civilization of the United States. We do not believe that all woman suffragists hold or even accept in any degree this doctrine; but most of the leaders in the movement hold it out as an inducement to overburdened women and licentious men. The best of their papers publish articles on "Physiological Incest," and the like, modestly saying that after persons are married, if they find themselves unsuited "physiologically" (think what that means!) they should not live together. This is what we call "Free Loveism," and though the New Northwest ridicules us by asking "what is Free Love?" it acknowledges in its ridicule the strength of our argument.

There is, without doubt, great merit in the woman question; and we have favored agitating the subject, hoping thereby to bring to women the power of controlling her own labor, and receiving for it equal compensation with man; her genius should be acknowledged and honored equally with the sterner sex; her ability to control her own business; advise with her husband in the distribution of their mutual earnings; and, indeed, have all the rights socially, morally and politically that men enjoy, if any plan can be devised that would result in good to the greatest number; but we most assuredly object to any revolution that would bring about the social degradation that is proposed by the leaders of this movement. The Bible is the standard of right and civilization, and when the laws given by Jehovah upon Sinai, and by the Savior in Jerusalem, must necessarily be thrown aside, we are opposed to all "reform."

But Mrs. Duniway denies that this is the intention. The letter of "M." in THE OREGONIAN of Wednesday, is most opportune. It says: "They [woman suffragists] teach that no sexual relations that are not founded on pure love, affection and harmony, should be maintained."

Now we have no objection to either party choosing the one they love, but to try them and then want to "trade back," tends only to licentiousness and degradation. Of course the New Northwest will claim that "M." is not a representative of the new party. The leaders of any movement speak the principles of the party, especially when there is not one dissenting voice. Is it probable that the pure and modest will rush to the head and wire-work, and pull to place themselves on a level with their opponents to defeat this objectionable part after woman suffrage has become a fact when they will not raise a dissenting voice now? No; but the extremes that are advocated now will be readily adopted than and the leaders will only be left to seek out greater extremes and more licentiousness. The important question is, will the people consider woman suffrage, saddled with such principles? T.

PORTLAND, October 5, 1871.

Among the Hills.

Hither have I come on this lovely June morning, to this beautiful hillside slope, for one quiet musing hour—come from the noise, discord and strife—come from the world which is

> "Trampling, bursting at all hours,
> With no taking noon-tide in the shade,
> No weaving rustic bowers," which thinks it a waste of time indeed, to repair to the woods, valleys and fields—there to sit in holy communion with God and nature—a communion that may be realized in its fullness and blessedness, far more than in the glare and glitter of the popular churches. Here we may listen to "the echo of the eternal harmonies," may hear "the still small voice" of the Infinite, and feel the loving pulsations of His great heart thrilling and vibrating through the temple of our souls. Here the angels press near, and our spirits feel the touch of their loving hands, as they whisper: "This is the way, walk ye in it."

How little of real happiness is to be found in the business whirl, in the hurry scurry of life. How little amid scenes of artificial beauty, of wealth and opulence of any situation or position, indeed, where love abides not, and where a true appreciation of the beautiful, the good, the noble and magnanimous, dwells not in the soul.

> "Oh, my mortal friends and brothers,
> We are each and all another's,
> And the heart that gives most freely
> From its treasures hath the more.
> Would you lose your life you find it,
> And, in giving love, you bind it;
> Like an amulet of safety
> Round your heart forevermore."

But business and the stern duties of a restless, surging world call me. "I must away." But the joy with which I have hailed the uprising of this radiant June morning among the hills, on this my fifty-fourth birthday, will leave its aroma in my heart.

"Oh, why will not time, when nature and her lovers meet, awhile his wings forget?"

ORPHEUS.

Paint, perfume, pad and patch it as they will, the Democracy cannot disguise the new departure beyond recognition, for with every movement of its body and every motion of its fashionable skirt, the cloven foot discloses itself, and shows the order of beings to which it belongs. The latest Democratic view of the Constitutional Amendments is furnished by a prominent Kentucky Judge, who holds them to be political questions which must be settled by the political departments of the Government. How they would be "settled" under an administration compounded of equal parts of Tammanyism and Bourbonism may be guessed without the power of prophecy. The status of the negro under Tweed and Toombs, for instance—the one "tearing the live thunder from its home in the burning ether," the other with his hands up to the arm-pits in the public treasury—Toombs consenting that Tweed should rob, and Tweed agreeing that Toombs might oppress—would it not be delightful?

The business at the Post Office Department continues steadily to increase. The report of the foreign department shows that during the quarter ending June 30, 1871, 1,651,841 letters were sent, of which number 881,192 were British, 530,086 were sent by the Bremen and Hamburg and North German Union Lines combined, and 5,205 to France direct. During the same time 1,566,-993 letters were received, of which 830,622 were British, 409,340 came by the German lines, and 2,520 from France direct. The grand total of letters sent and received were 3,218,836.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

New York Democratic Convention.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The doings of the Democratic State Convention is the leading topic of conversation throughout the city. The reform party are greatly dissatisfied with the action of the convention in refusing them reconciliation. It is probable that a bolt will be effected by the party in this city, and in conjunction with the anti-Tammany organizations of the municipal reform. Much depends on what the convention does to-day. The platform is accepted by the Democracy here, and the reformers are said to be much pleased with it. It is thought the case of the reformers is badly managed.

A Rochester special received late last night says that at the caucus of the reform delegation it was decided to issue an address, but on consultation with Tilden it was concluded to wait developments of to-day.

Further Particulars.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 5.—On the reassembling of the Democratic Convention this morning a resolution was adopted giving the anti-Tammany delegation from New York a hearing. Ottendorfer disclaimed any purpose by the delegation to create dissension, but wanted the admission of the delegation which denounced the abhorred corruptions of Tammany. Wm. E. Curtis read a letter from Charles O'Conor denouncing the Tammany thieves and declaring that the Convention must repudiate them. Tilden moved to proceed with the nominations, and followed in a speech denouncing Tammany, and charging that the action of the Convention yesterday was concocted at midnight and then sprung upon the Convention. He declared he would not support the legislative nominations of Tammany and said if this was undemocratic he would resign the Chairmanship of the State Central Committee and return to his plundered fellow citizens. (Applause.)

Magone Gross was nominated for Secretary of State. The reform delegation, of which he is a member, said they would prefer not to have any of their members on the ticket. (Cheers.) Diedrick Willers was then nominated for Secretary of State; A. V. Nichols for Comptroller, and W. H. Bristol for Treasurer. The name of Charles O'Conor was presented for Attorney General. Several delegates stated that he would not accept. After some debate a vote resulted in the choice of Marshall B. Chaplain by 46 to 42 for O'Conor, Van B. Richmond was nominated for State Engineer; G. W. Chapman for Canal Commissioner and David McNeil for Inspector of State Prisons.

Spanish Affairs.

MADRID, October 5.—It is now considered probable that Admiral Malcomb will form a new cabinet, but no one believes it can be a lasting one.

Sagosta advises Amadeus to unite with Scorilla to construct a cabinet and remain at its head. There is a probability that the advice will be followed.

French Affairs.

VERSAILLES, October 5.—It is understood that the German government refuses to accept Treasury bonds guaranteed by French bankers in payment of the war indemnity, but requires bills of exchange.

The re-establishment of diplomatic arrangements is being arranged between Germany and France.

The Emperor of Brazil will visit Paris in December.

Two of the convicted Communists have escaped from Versailles.

London Dispatches.

LONDON, October 5.—Four successive and tremendous explosions occurred at the establishment of an oil merchant in Chelsea. Thirteen persons were injured, four of whom, it is feared, fatally.

The Renforth crew arrived at Newcastle last evening, and were heartily welcomed by their fellow townsmen. Their trainer, Scott, is dead.

A letter published to-day from Mundell, proposes terms of arbitration for the settlement of the Newcastle dispute.

A Bombay dispatch reports an insurrection at a Portuguese settlement on the west coast of India, but it was quelled.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 5.—Business is generally improving.

In the case of Edward Morrison who sued the San Rafael and San Quentin railroad for $15,000 damages for crushing his foot, it was shown by the plaintiff's testimony that the injury was the result of his own carelessness and a non-suit was entered.

OREGON.

The Daily Statesman has been enlarged and its appearance much improved.

Many people are already arriving at Salem in anticipation of the State Fair.

A new flouring mill at Lincoln, Polk county, has been finished and put in operation.

A man stole three hundred dollars at Gervais's three days since and sloped for Albany where he was overtaken and captured. He is now in jail at Salem.

A reporter for one of the newspapers says that he "feasted his eyes" for some minutes on a lot of fowls exhibited at the Linn County Fair. It is probable that the fowls roosted very high that night, as we have seen no advertisement for lost chickens.

From the Statesman: Nesmith's wagon was in town yesterday loaded with butter, made on the ex-Senator's farm. This solves the butter problem; if the farmers grow too rich to manufacture, we can fall back on retired statesmen, who are abundant in Oregon, and buy butter of them.

CURRENT NOTES.

It is said that a cure has been discovered for leprosy. A surgeon in Khundwa, India, reports the case of a wretched old man who came to him from Bombay, having been abandoned by his friends because of this terrible disease. He was treated with soap and water, and then with carbolic acid and oil, and he was completely cured.

Arrangements have been made by a firm in New York to publish a daily map of the United States, showing the state of the weather at different signal stations. Corrections will be made for the conditions of the barometer, thermometer, velocity and direction of the wind, and copies of the diagram will be delivered to subscribers in the forenoon of each day.

A machine has now been perfected which may be applied to cooling the air of theaters, halls and all public and private dwellings. One of these machines will either produce 200 pounds of ice per hour, or will furnish in the same space of time 30,000 cubic feet of air, cooled to a temperature of 30 deg. Fah. It is probable that in a few years we will turn from the same registers the cool air in summer and hot air in winter.

Shaker stockings are manufactured in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, over three-fifths of the whole supply being produced in New Hampshire. In the latter State twenty-eight factories are in operation, producing 4,500 pairs per day. These manufactories give employment to about 1,400 hands in the mills, and over 13,000 women on the outside steadily employed in knitting on the heels and toes, and also a large number earning one dozen for this work, besides attending to their household duties. The monthly pay rolls of these establishments amount to fifty thousand dollars in the aggregate, and employ almost the entire female population within a radius of fifteen miles. In Massachusetts there are seventeen hosiery mills, each producing 250 to 2,500 dozen stockings daily. The five largest mills produce an aggregate of 6,600 stockings daily, and employ one thousand hands.

THE TERRITORIES.

Snow fell at Silver City, Owyhee, on the 29th September.

Camp Three Forks, Owyhee, was sold at auction a few days ago, and will no longer be used for military purposes.

It is reported that the Golconda and Hope mines in South Mountain District, Owyhee, have been sold for fifty thousand dollars. Also, that the Original and Galena have been sold for two hundred thousand dollars.

IDLE GIRLS.—It is a painful spectacle in families where the mother is the drudge, to see the daughters, elegantly dressed, reclining at their ease with their drawing, their fancy work and their reading, beguiling themselves of the lapse of hours, days and weeks, and never dreaming of their responsibilities, but as a necessary consequence of neglect of duty, growing weary of their useless lives, laying hold of every newly invented stimulant to rouse their drooping energies, and blaming their fate when they dare not blame their God, for having placed them where they are. These individuals will often tell you, with an air of affected compassion (for who can believe it real) that poor, dear mamma is working herself to death; yet, no sooner do you propose that they should assist her, than they declare she is quite in her element; in short, that she never would be happy if she only had half as much to do.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 6, 1871.

Our Misquoting Neighbor.

When we sent that book to the Herald we confess we did entertain a hope that our neighbor would honestly consult its pages, and that, in case he should feel impelled to continue his essays on the national finances he would accurately copy from its pages the official figures, and so avoid a repetition of the many errors into which he had previously fallen. But we grieve to see it otherwise. So disappointed are we that we are almost ready to give up all effort toward reforming our neighbor. For instance, he says he learns from the book we sent him that the expenditures for military service for Mr. Buchanan's fiscal year ending June 30, 1860, were $6,977,008 95; and he contrasts these figures with the $57,655,675 40 expended under the designation, "military service," during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1870. He adds this observation:

> That is to say: it takes more than nine times as much to keep up the "military service" in a time of peace under "Radical rule," as it took to keep up the like service in a time of peace, under Democratic administration.

Now we have two copies left of that book which we sent to our neighbor, and in both of these it is stated that the "military service" for the fiscal year of 1859-60 cost $16,472,202 72. The truth is, our neighbor, with a perversity which we fear is incurable, has been misquoting the book we sent him, by trying to make it appear that the army under Mr. Buchanan cost but a little over six millions a year, when the fact is, for the year he cites, it cost nearly sixteen and a half millions. Indeed, the average expenditure for the four years of Mr. Buchanan's administration, under the designation, "military service," was $22,101,893 per annum.

While we are on this point we may as well show our neighbor that though the army cost $57,655,675 40 for the year ending June 30, 1870, yet for the year ending June 30, 1871, its cost was reduced to $35,799,991 82. This was currency, equal say to $31,000,000 gold, against an average of $22,000,000, gold, during Mr. Buchanan's administration. The army now numbers 30,000 men. Then, it numbered less than 18,000. So it actually costs less per regiment to maintain the army now than it did when Mr. Buchanan was President. It is to be remembered, too, that the army is scattered much more widely now than it was then.

For proof that the cost of the army for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1871, was $35,799,991 82, as we have stated above, we refer our neighbor to a report issued by the Treasury on the 14th August last, the substance of which will be found in New York papers of about that date, which may be seen at the rooms of the Portland Library Association. The same report also shows a large reduction in the cost of the navy.

The expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1871,—we quote still from the report of 14th August last,—were $412,912,335 43. There was paid on the principal of the public debt, $120,735,147 18; for interest on the public debt, $125,576,565 93, and on account of Indians and pensions, $41,870,892 32. Total, $288,182,605 43. Expenses under these several heads in Mr. Buchanan's time were quite trifling, because there was a very small public debt, but little interest to pay, and but few persons were on the pension rolls. The great expenses now annually incurred under these heads are the results of the war, are extraordinary and unavoidable. With this explanation we may now put the statement thus:

Total expenses for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1871 .... $412,012,335 43
Paid on principal and interest of the public debt and for Indians and pensions... 288,182,605 43

Balance for ordinary expenses $134,729,730 00, currency, or about $120,000,000 gold, against an average of $62,000,000 (exclusive of Indians, pensions and interest on the public debt) under President Buchanan. It may be said that this is a large increase. So it is, but it is little larger than the increase of expenditures at the [illegible] Buchanan's administration over those of ten years previously. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1851, the net ordinary expenses of the Government were $37,165,990. Those of Mr. Buchanan's administration averaged $65,000,000 a year.

These figures show conclusively that the increase in the expenses of the Government does not exceed the growth of the country and the needs of the public service. They also disprove in the most convincing manner partisan assertions that the revenues are "squandered by a wasteful administration." We still have another statement to present for the Herald's digestion. For this purpose we take the expenditures of our own State now and ten years ago.

An examination of the appropriation bills passed by the Legislature of Oregon at its session in 1860 to pay the expenses of the State government for the then ensuing two years shows the aggregate to be $62,045. A like examination of the appropriation bills passed at the session of 1870 to meet expenses of the current two years shows that the aggregate is $321,116. This is exclusive of the large amount appropriated to meet expenses of the preceding two years, for which no appropriation had theretofore been made. Now if we should deal with this matter after the style suggested by the Herald, we should present it thus:

State expenditures for two years from 1860 to 1862 .... $ 62,045
State expenditures from 1870 to 1872 321,116

Difference $259,071

which difference represents the amount "squandered by the present extravagant, wasteful and corrupt State administration!" How does the Herald like this application of its own language?

These figures show that our State Government costs more than five times what it did ten years ago. Instead of devoting all his time to complaining that the National Government is more expensive now than it was a decade since, had not our neighbor better attack the "wasteful prodigality" of the present Democratic government of Oregon, which expends five times as much money as sufficed for all the purposes of the State Government ten years ago?

Oregon Democrats who have been declaring that the disclosures of frauds in New York were nothing but "Radical lies" will see by dispatches published to-day how the matter was treated in the New York Democratic Convention. In that body it was admitted that the charges were true and had been proven.

The exact status of the California Legislature is now ascertained to be this: Senate, 18 Republicans, 21 Democrats, 1 independent, and 1 to be elected. House, 55 Republicans, 24 Democrats and 1 independent. The Republican majority on joint ballot cannot be less than 25.

Trials of Speed.

In the following article in the North-Western Home, an agricultural paper published at Vancouver, essays to answer the "old fogies" who oppose trials of speed at our fairs:

> The stock raiser has a more immediate interest in the trials of speed. The time that the stallion makes is his recommendation. The farmer who is raising stock desires to know what stallion to select for fast horses, as well as which for draft or farm use. If he is at the race course he sees the speed, the endurance and the trueness of the horse. He does not wish to employ one of an awkward or shambling gait, nor one that under excitement, "bolts the track," but one that is spirited, gentle and true. And the most reliable method of ascertaining these characteristics is to see the horse on the race track. One man wishes to sell an animal he has raised and trained, for a high price. He must fit him for the track and give him a trial there, if he would have him known. If the horse has good blood, the owner will find ready sale. So too with the purchaser—he visits the race-course to ascertain where he can find a suitable horse. If all, actually concerned in horse-flesh, would give our trials of speed that attention which their importance demands, they would soon rid them of their attendant evils, and prejudices against them would disappear. In countries where agricultural fairs are comparatively new, jockeys have a great advantage. They sooner learn the "tricks of trade" than the managers know how to counteract them. But the latter learn their business in due time, and jockeying is, to a great extent given up; good order is maintained, betting is at least kept out of sight, and trials of speed become a benefit to the community. Nothing good in itself should be thrown aside because bad men abuse it. Reform it of its evils, and secure the benefits of it, then the prejudices will soon disappear.

Mr. Horace Greeley has published an article in the Galaxy, insisting that the President of the United States should be restricted to a single term. He does not name Gen. Grant, but it is clear that his aim is to prevent his re-nomination. Of course, however, if Gen. Grant should be re-nominated, Mr. Greeley will support him. In contending for the "one term principle," Mr. Greeley brings forward the familiar argument that by its adoption a President would be prevented from using the patronage of his office during his first term to secure a re-nomination. There is force in this argument, and so there is force in the reply to it, that if he does not use his official influence to secure a re-nomination for himself he can do so to secure that of another person, which in practice would be about as bad. Replying to Mr. Greeley the New York Independent says the great body of the people are well satisfied with the administration of Gen. Grant, and see no sufficient reason why he should not be re-nominated. It is needless, however, to dwell on this subject, for as the Independent observes, it is evident that unless some very marked change shall take place in public feeling, Gen. Grant will be re-nominated almost without opposition.

Lancasterian Schools.

PORTLAND, October 5, 1871.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: In this morning's OREGONIAN I notice an article referring to an address on education by J. A. Waymire, Esq., of Salem, which is very interesting; and as he approves of the maintenance of normal schools (an absolute necessity in my estimation) I would like to know if he recommends the Lancasterian or Monitorial system. This system prevails in the parochial schools of the United Kingdom. Having had twenty years experience as a teacher of it, I believe it would be a most important introduction into our district schools. By this system there can be no idleness or loss of time, for all the classes are engaged and the exercises only last a certain time, not more than thirty minutes. The work of each class is visible to the teacher, who is everywhere, exercising as it were the hundred eyes of Argus, and the hands of Briareus. By this system a stranger or visitor beholds in a conspicuous place in the room, a table of time setting forth the occupation of all the classes every day in the week, and the exercises of each class every day. The great beauty and benefit of this system is that no lesson can be passed over without being perfectly learned; not that the class is required to keep it in hand the same day till completed, but at the expiration of time allotted for each exercise, the class proceeds to the next and the lesson that was not satisfactorily learned is resumed at the proper time next day. By this system questions on all lessons, be the subject ever so simple, have to be put by the monitor, and I have always discovered that this plan instructed the monitor far more than the being a pupil in his own class. "Teaching teacheth."

Hoping that this system may be adopted and that proper remuneration may be allowed to secure the services of good teachers, I remain, your most obedient servant,

J. L. DALY.

The Stolen Vouchers.

The New York Tribune in an article on the stealing of the vouchers from the Controller's office in that city thus describes the perpetrator of the act:

> There is a curiously grotesque completeness about this stupid and bungling crime. The chief perpetrator, Haggerty, is one of that foul fungus growth which has sprung up of late from the rank soil of Tammany corruption. As he appeared in Court, yesterday, richly and showily dressed, his fingers and shirt front blazing with stolen diamonds, he appeared like a visible personification of the vice and disorder which curse our municipal affairs. His wife is a market-woman, he is doorkeeper of a public building on a small salary; and yet he is a member of the American and Blossom Clubs, the fine flower of our Democratic oligarchy, and spent the night before his arrest drinking and gambling at these luxurious and extravagant resorts. It is the weakness of a vulgar despotism that it must be served by creatures who exaggerate its own faults. If a Tweed or a Sweeny or a Hall or a Connolly requires vile work to be done, it must be committed to some such blackguard as this, who is too false to be trusted and too stupid to be safe. So it happened that while he and Ballob had the whole night and morning to work in, they went so clumsily about their work that a watchman and a servant girl saw the vouchers carried off and burned.

GENIUS AND COMMON SENSE.—Genius and common-sense are best together. Genius alone runs much to rashness, and common-sense by itself not seldom hides behind caution. Consequently genius frequently is out at elbows, and common sense just as often remains only comfortable when it might get rich. Genius invents a thing and constructs an expensive model, and secures a patent before ever making a working-drawing or fully deciding upon the proper arrangement of the parts. Common sense shivers before the expense of model, machine, and patent, and lets well-enough alone, until go-aheadativeness grabs the idea, walks off with it, and leaves common sense out in the cold, neither poorer nor richer than he was before. This is a metaphorical way of stating a solid truth. There is probably not a township in the country in which two inventors might not be found, one a genius daring everything and losing all, the other priding himself on his common sense, running no risks and making nothing.

DOWN WITH MONOPOLY!

DRS. ABORN AND LORYEA NOWHERE!

Give the Working Man a Chance!

The Greatest Discovery ever made by Man on this Earth.

RENNICK'S

Wahoo Bitters!

NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL IN CURING

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia,

and all Affections of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys.

IT HAS CURED CASES WHERE THOUSANDS OF Dollars had been expended to no purpose but filling the system with mercury, by practical or educated quacks.

Wahoo—(Euonymus Atropurpureus), a small shrub growing in many parts of the United States. The bark of the root is a bitter tonic, laxative, attrictive, diuretic, and expectorant, and is advantageously used in pulmonary affections, dropsy, constipation, torpidity of the liver, dyspepsia and intermittent fevers.

Read the Certificate of Mr. Thompson, of the Workingman's Boarding House, Front street, Portland:

PORTLAND, October, 4th, 1871.

I hereby certify that I am acquainted with the properties of the Wahoo Bitters, put up by S. J. Rennick. It is one of the best remedies for the Stomach and Blood in the world. In fact, it will cure Dyspepsia, Chronic Liver complaint, Chills and Fever, and has the advantage of not being intoxicating.

J. N. CUNNINGHAM, M. D.

This is to certify that I have used the celebrated Wahoo Bitters, and have known several other men in my house who were prostrated with ague and rheumatism, whom it has effectually cured. It acts on the liver and kidneys, surpassing anything I ever used.

J. R. THOMPSON, of Thompson House.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Sept. 12, 1871.

This is to certify that I have been sick with chills and fever for the last fourteen days, and have tried a great many remedies, and found them all to be humbugs, and was about to give up everything in despair. Mr. Rennick's heard about my case, and gave me a bottle of his Wahoo Bitters and I was relieved, as if by magic, from the hand of God.

A. KOPP, Philadelphia Brewery, Portland, Oregon.

MCMINNVILLE, Sept. 27, 1871.

This is to certify that I have used Rennick's Wahoo Bitters for a good while, having been acquainted with the Wahoo bark for over thirty years, and when aided by other barks, known only to the proprietor, it surpasses any medicine ever used for Ague, Chills, Fever and all affections of the Liver, Kidneys and Bladder. I have no hesitation in recommending it to the public. I am going on a visit to Illinois and take some with me.

E. J. WRIGHT.

ELLIS STATION, W. P. R. R., Sept. 31.

I give this of my own free will for the benefit of suffering people. I am fifty-eight years of age, born in Dilley, Staffordshire, England, and a miner; suffered from rheumatism for years; have traveled with crutch and cane for the last two years, but I thank my God that Wahoo Bitters has made me a well man. No humbug about this. Experience has proved that Wahoo Bitters is king of all diseases. I recommend any person any way affected to try them.

OLD ARCHY BURTON, Corral Hollow, W. P. R. R., Cal.

October 3d.

This is to certify that I have used Rennick's Wahoo Bitters, and can with confidence recommend it to all suffering from indigestion and all affections of the liver and kidneys.

JOHN STURGIS, Front street, near sawmill.

PORTLAND, October 1st.

This is to certify that I have been afflicted for twenty years, and the more doctors' medicines I took, I became worse when the effects of the medicine was over. I had a dreadful pain in my side. The doctors said it was my liver, but, thank God, one bottle of the Wahoo Bitters made a change, and I believe it will make a perfect cure.

MRS. SALLY J. L——.

All orders directed through the Postoffice will be at once attended to. The Bitters will be carefully packed and delivered on any boat, properly.

Orders filled by Express, or as directed.

PRICE—$10 per dozen or $1 per Bottle.

Address: P. J. RENNICK, 191 Front Street, Portland, Oregon.

TO HOUSE BUILDERS & PAINTERS

"AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINTS."

THESE PAINTS ARE SO WELL KNOWN throughout the Atlantic States and their reputation so abundantly established for

Beauty, Permanence and Economy

That we can confidently recommend and guarantee an entire satisfaction in their use.

THEIR COST is less than pure leads, and covers one-fifth more surface, making them the most economical Paints in the market.

THEIR DURABILITY is unquestioned. They dry hard with a smooth and glossy surface and will not chalk, crack or peel off.

THEIR ADAPTABILITY.—They are already mixed and ready for use and require no oil, turpentine or dryers. Are sold of any desired shade, by the gallon only.

Testimonials:

Gen. James S. Negley, M. C., Pittsburg, Pa., writes Nov. 10, '70: I have no hesitation in recommending the "Averill Chemical Paints" to those who regard economy and durability. It weathers our smoky atmosphere better than any Paints I have tested. The colors are rich and variable. Altogether I find them the CHEAPEST AND BEST."

"JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA CUSTOM HOUSE.—It looks as fresh and glossy as when first applied. I do not believe any LEAD AND OIL CAN EQUAL IT.

"WM. P. DOCKRAY."

I have carefully compared the cost and merits of the Averill Paints with White Lead and Oil and find 99 cents per gallon in favor of the former.

H. H. PEARSON,

Late of the Russ House.

HAVING BOUGHT THE INTEREST OF MESSRS. Tubbs & Patten, of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, has secured a lease for a term of years of this well known and elegantly furnished Hotel. Its previous reputation assures its being kept in first class style, while in order to keep pace with the times he intends to make important reductions in the scale of charges. The Daily Oregonia

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 6, 1871.

CITY.

SHIPPING ITEMS.—The Dixie Thompson tow up the bark Niobe from Kalama yesterday, to ta an outward cargo. The vessel lies at the east s wharf.

The ship Dovenby was run aground off St. H ens in fourteen feet of water. A portion of cargo was taken out, when she swung aron across the channel, thus preventing the passage other deep draught vessels.

The Ajax came up yesterday afternoon to Helens, and anchored below the Dovenby. H passengers and express matter were brought last evening by the steamer Fannie Troup. was expected the Ajax would be able to pass th Dovenby at high tide and come up during the nigh or this morning.

The brig Orient is ready to sail and will b towed down the river to-day by the Dixie Thomp son. She has a cargo of over five hundred to Oregon produce for San Francisco.

PASSENGER ARRIVALS.—The following is th list of passengers from California per steamshi Ajax: L Hirsch and wife, A Goldsmith and wif Wm Morton and wife, F Gerthing, wife and si ter, G Tibbetts and wife, Mrs M J Williams an son, C G Dyar, E H Taylor, J Lucasie and wif C B Bristol and wife, Miss E Maldron, A J M nor, Miss Minor, C H Stone, A L Stinson, Powers, W Teidman, J Wilhelm, W G Taylor, Robertson, David Ruth and family, L Lincke and family, John Smith and wife, O Lockett, Kerpen, M Alberts, R Lucasie, Miss S Sander Mrs C Calkins and child, B Lewis, E Hirsch, Sanders, C H Walker and family, M W Kennedy S S Gordon, A G Reese, J T Butterfield, T Kah S B McCord, N Keerer and family, Mrs L Ac and son, Mrs Hall, Mrs E A Fay and two chi dren, Miss A Zink, two Sisters of Charity, Ra Father Delorme, Capt L Thurkelson, E Water and wife, W Smith, G P Mute, H C Kettler, Hinsman, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger, an 97 in the steerage.

MEETING OF "WHAT D'YE CALL IT."—Our St Helens correspondent says, under date of Octobe 4th, that, "pursuant to notice, the 'What d'y Call It' company had a meeting in the Cour House last Saturday evening, and the proceeding proceeded, and in due time it adjourned to mee again. We expect to be there. Further develop ments promised." We suppose that the Colum bia City and Wallamet Valley Railroad Company (or whatever else it may be called) is meant. Th "What d'ye Call It" is good.

ANOTHER WATER HORROR.—A nasty, long slim, slimy looking snake, which made its entree into public notice in this city through a hydrant in the Oregon Dispensary, First st., was on ex hibition yesterday. The squirming thing was nearly a foot long, and about as big at one end as the other, if not bigger, and was altogether a rather lively varmint. Most of those who saw it took their beverages without water the balance of the day.

THEATRICAL.—Miss Annie Pixley went to Salem a day or two since to secure a place for her troupe during the State Fair.

The Nathan Family is expected to arrive from the Sound next Saturday or Sunday, en route for Salem.

The troupe now playing at the "Theater Comique," will play at Salem during the Fair week. We hear they have engaged Reed's Opera House.

THE NEW NORTH END HOTEL.—M Holladay and Halsey are about to commence operations preparatory to the erection of the hotel near the ferry landing, which we mentioned some time ago. The block, which is some ten or twelve feet below the street grade, is to be filled up for a foundation. To do this a track will be laid down connecting with the Oregon Central Railroad, and the dirt cars will be brought into requisition.

PRICE OF A BABY.—The Herald has a romantic story about a female who came to this city some time ago from the country, and on account of poverty, insanity or total depravity—it does not clearly appear which—sold her baby to a member of the demi-monde for ten dollars. If the baby should turn out no better than the mother who sold it, the price, small as it was, was against the buyer.

WE SUBSCRIBE.—The Bulletin, announcing the expected arrival of Mr. Bates with a dramatic troupe, says: "If Mr. Bates brings a good company here our citizens will sustain him in a liberal manner; but if he presents a bundle of sticks and expects to make his own and his wife's excellent acting supply the deficiency he will find his mistake." We take stock in that opinion.

A SAILOR DROWNED.—The steamer Dixie Thompson called in at Kalama yesterday to tow the bark Niobe to this city. The 2d mate, named E. L. Jenkins, being in a small boat, was, by some maneuver, drifted near the steamer's wheel, and being afraid that he was about to be drawn under it, he jumped overboard and was drowned.

AMUSEMENTS.—The "Madagascar Combination," consisting of three Madagascars with white hair and pink eyes, a Circassian woman without pink eyes, and a lot of snakes, is advertised by posters around town as one of the greatest combination shows now traveling. Where is the Taylor Family?

BOOKS PRESENTED TO THE LIBRARY.—Judge Deady has made a valuable present to the Portland Library of the "Archives of Oregon," including the House and Senate Journals, Governors' Messages, General and Special Laws, and Public Papers of Oregon from 1841 to 1870, 21 volumes.

PASSENGERS OVERLAND FOR PORTLAND.—Passed Yreka yesterday, bound for Portland, by Oregon & California Stage, the following passengers: Mr. Fisher, E J Mills, Wm. Hutchinson, J T Williams, E E Williams.

STILL STIRRING THEM UP.—Miss Susan B. Anthony is making a tour of the West side towns. She will hold a meeting to-night at Lafayette, to-morrow night at McMinnville, and Monday night at Forest Grove.

TRAVEL DOWN THE COLUMBIA.—For nearly every day this week the Oneonta, on her down trip, has been crowded with passengers, a large proportion of whom are bound for the State Fair.

WANTS TO KNOW, YOU KNOW.—Kate Marks wants to know where is James H. Marks, who was last winter a blacksmith in the Oregon Iron Works in this city. He has been absent since December.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.—Workmen are engaged in planking Seventh street from A to B street. The work will be completed before the rainy season sets in.

SAILING POSTPONED.—The sailing of the propeller Gussie Telfair for Puget Sound ports, has been postponed till 7 o'clock P. M. Saturday, the 7th.

SAILED.—The steamship Montana sailed yesterday morning for San Francisco without any passengers, but a full cargo.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Hugh Small, correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin, has returned from his trip to Walla Walla and Eastern Oregon.

Mr. C. B. Plummer had a full house at Salem, and the Statesman says his entertainment was the best given at Salem since Plummer was there before.

Mr. A. L. Stinson, Representative of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of the United States, reached this city last evening en route for his home at Salem. He is just returning from the late session of the Grand Lodge U. S.

CITY.

SHIPPING ITEMS.—The Dixie Thompson towed up the bark Niobe from Kalama yesterday, to take an outward cargo. The vessel lies at the east side wharf.

The ship Dovenby was run aground off St. Helens in fourteen feet of water. A portion of her cargo was taken out, when she swung around across the channel, thus preventing the passage of other deep draught vessels.

The Ajax came up yesterday afternoon to St. Helens, and anchored below the Dovenby. Her passengers and express matter were brought up last evening by the steamer Fannie Troup. It was expected the Ajax would be able to pass the Dovenby at high tide and come up during the night or this morning.

The brig Orient is ready to sail and will be towed down the river to-day by the Dixie Thompson. She has a cargo of over five hundred tons Oregon produce for San Francisco.

PASSENGER ARRIVALS.—The following is the list of passengers from California per steamship Ajax: L Hirsch and wife, A Goldsmith and wife, Wm Morton and wife, F Gerthing, wife and sister, G Tibbetts and wife, Mrs M J Williams and son, C G Dyer, E H Taylor, J Lucasie and wife, C B Bristol and wife, Miss E Maldron, A J Minor, Miss Minor, C H Stone, A L Stinson, P Powers, W Teidman, J Wilhelm, W G Taylor, W Robertson, David Ruth and family, L Lincker and family, John Smith and wife, O Lockett, H Kerpen, M Alberts, R Lucasie, Miss S Sanders, Mrs C Calkins and child, B Lewis, E Hirsch, L Sanders, C H Walker and family, M W Kennedy, S S Gorden, A G Reese, J T Butterfield, T Kahn, S B McCord, N Keezer and family, Mrs L Ach and son, Mrs Hall, Mrs E A Fay and two children, Miss A Zink, two Sisters of Charity, Rev Father Delorme, Capt L Thurkelson, E Waters and wife, W Smith, G P Mute, H C Kettler, L Elseman, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger, and 97 in the steerage.

MEETING OF "WHAT D'YE CALL IT."—Our St. Helens correspondent says, under date of October 4th, that, "pursuant to notice, the 'What d'ye Call It' company had a meeting in the Court House last Saturday evening, and the proceedings proceeded, and in due time it adjourned to meet again. We expect to be there. Further developments promised." We suppose that the Columbia City and Wallamet Valley Railroad Company (or whatever else it may be called) is meant. The "What d'ye Call It" is good.

ANOTHER WATER HORROR.—A nasty, long, slim, slimy looking snake, which made its entree into public notice in this city through a hydrant in the Oregon Dispensary, First street, was on exhibition yesterday. The squirming thing was nearly a foot long, and about as big at one end as the other, if not bigger, and was altogether a rather lively varmint. Most of those who saw it took their beverages without water the balance of the day.

THEATRICAL.—Miss Annie Pixley went to Salem a day or two since to secure a place for her troupe during the State Fair.

The Nathan Family is expected to arrive from the Sound next Saturday or Sunday, en route for Salem.

The troupe now playing at the "Theater Comique," will play at Salem during the Fair week. We hear they have engaged Reed's Opera House.

THE NEW NORTH END HOTEL.—Messrs. Holladay and Halsey are about to commence operations preparatory to the erection of the hotel near the ferry landing, which we mentioned some time ago. The block, which is some ten or twelve feet below the street grade, is to be filled up for a foundation. To do this a track will be laid down, connecting with the Oregon Central Railroad, and the dirt cars will be brought into requisition.

PRICE OF A BABY.—The Herald has a romantic story about a female who came to this city some time ago from the country, and on account of poverty, insanity or total depravity—it does not clearly appear which—sold her baby to a member of the demi-monde for ten dollars. If the baby should turn out no better than the mother who sold it, the price, small as it was, was against the buyer.

WE SUBSCRIBE.—The Bulletin, announcing the expected arrival of Mr. Bates with a dramatic troupe, says: "If Mr. Bates brings a good company here our citizens will sustain him in a liberal manner; but if he presents a bundle of sticks and expects to make his own and his wife's excellent acting supply the deficiency he will find his mistake." We take stock in that opinion.

A SAILOR DROWNED.—The steamer Dixie Thompson called in at Kalama yesterday to tow the bark Niobe to this city. The 2d mate, named E. L. Jenkins, being in a small boat, was, by some maneuver, drifted near the steamer's wheel, and being afraid that he was about to be drawn under it, he jumped overboard and was drowned.

AMUSEMENTS.—The "Madagascar Combination," consisting of three Madagascars with white hair and pink eyes, a Circassian woman without pink eyes, and a lot of snakes, is advertised by posters around town as one of the greatest combination shows now traveling. Where is the Taylor Family?

BOOKS PRESENTED TO THE LIBRARY.—Judge Deady has made a valuable present to the Portland Library of the "Archives of Oregon," including the House and Senate Journals, Governors' Messages, General and Special Laws, and Public Papers of Oregon from 1841 to 1870, 21 volumes.

PASSENGERS OVERLAND FOR PORTLAND.—Passed Yreka yesterday, bound for Portland, by Oregon & California Stage, the following passengers: Mr. Fisher, E J Mills, Wm Hutchinson, J T Williams, E E Williams.

STILL STIRRING THEM UP.—Miss Susan B. Anthony is making a tour of the West side towns. She will hold a meeting to-night at Lafayette, to-morrow night at McMinnville, and Monday night at Forest Grove.

THE HAPPY FAMILY.

THE BANDS OF BROTHERLY LOVE BROKEN—A NOSE TWEAKED—HOW, WHY, AND WHAT CAME OF IT.

The three heads of the Metropolitan Police held a solemn meeting the other night, and after trying conclusions and fully argufying the momentous question as to the usefulness, fitness and ornamentableness of a member of the police force, whose name we suppress for "obvious reasons," but whom we will call Jacobus, for short, arrived at the conclusion that the said Jacobus was not so useful, nor fit, nor ornamental as a Metropolitan Policeman all dressed in "natty blue," with brass buttons on to him, ought to be. The three wise heads (we hope our readers will not confound these with the "Three Stone Heads"), having arrived at this conclusion, they tramped a step further and concluded to conclude the Metropolitan Police career of the said offending and short-coming Jacobus. Accordingly the three heads sent an official intimation to Mr. Jacobus that, as a Metropolitan Policeman, he was not a success; that nobody who had failed to be a success could be considered ornamental, however natty his blue might be; and that, in short, he, Jacobus, was at that moment as a Metropolitan Policeman defunct. Having done thus much the three wise heads leaned complacently back each in his official chair, each wrinkled front unwrinkled and each wise head smole a smile. Then, having done all that human wisdom could do to secure the peace and dignity of the city, the Metropolitan Police heads, whose names we suppress also, for obvious reasons, but whom for short we will designate as Hallokus, Barkus and Blanchardus, arose and departed, each wherever his nose happened to precede him. When, however, Jacobus heard what had been done, he arose and cussed muchly; cussed the Metropolitan head, Hallokus, till all was blue—blue as the natty uniform which at that moment enclosed his manly form. Jacobus not only cussed, but he called Hallokus pet names, and said many things not altogether complimentary to the aforesaid head. Which this same Hallokus heard of, and then his wrath rose till it was mighty. The mighty wraths of Hallokus and Jacobus met yesterday morning on the sidewalk, and thereupon ensued a conversation which a bystander describes as "short, sharp and decisive." Hallokus expressed the opinion that Jacobus had departed from the strict line of truth, and Jacobus retorted by calling Hallokus another. Whereat the gentle Hallokus reached forth his hand and tweaked the nose of the lamb like Jacobus, and mildly suggested that if the latter wasn't stuck after that sort of salutation he might go help himself. The latter wasn't stuck after it at all and so he said, and wanted to know of t'other one why he went for to jump on a cripple. Thus the matter of physical prowess ended, and each party followed his own nose away from there. Subsequently, however, the law having been slightly offended, Hallokus made some amends by paying the expenses of the entire entertainment out of his own pocket, amounting to about eighteen American dollars. Judge Denny, to whom the matter had been referred, then said it was all square. It is not quite certain, however, that Jacobus thinks so.

An Unprotected System.

Do not fancy because you feel strong that you are impregnable to sickness. Whole neighborhoods are frequently prostrated at this season by malarious fevers. Vigorous muscles and strong sinews, broad shoulders and sound lungs, are no defence against the mephitic vapors of autumn. Frames which have withstood the summer heat may succumb now. Many an athletic man, whose family depends for its support on his industry, now lies prostrate, weak and helpless as a babe, under the periodical assaults of chills and fever, or bilious remittent fever. This could not be if all were wise enough to provide against such a contingency, by toning and fortifying the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This approved vegetable tonic is absolutely harmless, so that it is sheer folly not to take it as a safeguard at a season when diseases of the liver, the stomach, the bowels, and indeed all the visceral organs are generally prevalent. To keep the system in order and insure health, or to put it in order when this precaution has been neglected, is the duty of every human being who values life. For both these purposes Hostetter's Bitters is designated, and it answers both. Petty local dealers are endeavoring, in many parts of the country, to substitute preparations made of impure and dangerous materials in its stead. Give them a wide berth. They are prepared by unskillful experimentors who want to turn a penny at the expense of the public health.

European and Oregon Land Co.,

PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms:

The applicant filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed, to wit:

Pre-emption, ——— date, No. ——.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

SIR: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of ——— State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."

(Name of applicant.)

(Postoffice address.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, NO. ——.

This is to certify that ———, of ——— county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of premises), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the above described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Signed) ———— Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.

GRAY'S MUSIC STORE!

THE WORLD-RENOWNED

BURDETT ORGAN!

What the Press and the Musical Public of Oregon and Washington Territory Think of Them:

An instrument superior in volume, sweetness, flexibility and variety than any other now being manufactured. * * Its power is equal to any ordinary Organ twice its size.—Oregon Herald.

Certainly a grand instrument. * * To musical minds the instrument will [illegible] itself.—Oregon Bulletin.

Burdett's are everywhere taking the place of all other Organs, showing conclusively their superiority. * * The combination is the perfection of the Reed Organ System.—Catholic Sentinel.

My opinion of the "Burdett Combination" Organ is expressed in a very few words: I have never seen its equal in the whole course of my life.

J. F. WYATT, Director Philharmonic Society and Choir of First Presbyterian Church, Portland.

Having examined the "Burdett Combination" Organ thoroughly, I must say I consider it the best instrument of the Reed Organ class that I have seen, and am so well pleased with it, that I have procured one for the use of Trinity Church, where I am at present Organist.

I. W. WALLACE.

Having ample opportunity to test the various makes of Organs during my experience in the States and on this coast as a teacher, I am happy to testify to the excellence of the new Burdett Organ, and cordially recommend it to any of my pupils or friends wishing to get the best.

J. B. McILVENY, Director of Choir First Congregational Church.

Superior to anything of the Reed Organ class that I have seen.

J. D. WINTON, Pastor M. E. Church, Kalama, W. T.

After examining the new Burdett Organ, I am fully convinced of its superior excellence, and shall be pleased to introduce it into the institution of which I have charge.

W. A. FINDLAY, A. M., President of Corvallis College.

The finest instrument in the shape of a Reed Organ I have ever seen.

R. K. WARREN, A. M., President Albany College.

After carefully examining the new Burdett Organ, I can say sincerely that they are the best Reed Organ in the country, and the only Organ I shall think of using in any institution that I have charge of.

T. L. DUGGER, Principal of Santiam Academy.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 5, 1871.

Gold in New York, 113¾.

Currency, here, buying, 87c; selling, 88.

Exchange—On San Francisco, coin, ½ ℘c. discount; currency, par; on New York, 1½ ℘c. premium. Telegraphic transfers on San Francisco, ½ ℘c. premium; on New York, 1½@1¾ ℘c. premium.

Coin continues scarce, causing the market if anything to rule more stringent than at any previous time. The banks, under the impression that remittances from the interior would be freer, have not shipped from San Francisco through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express sufficient to meet our trade requirements. We have made inquiries at the Express Co.'s office and find that the amounts sent out of the city through their Company, to be disbursed in the country, and the amounts received here through their Company, compare as 10 to 1. Our attention has been called by parties here to the loose and unbusiness-like manner in which many interior merchants send or remit to parties here; instead of sending coin through the express, or buying drafts payable here or in California, they have been and are still in the habit of sending by any acquaintance coming along. If remittances are made by drafts or by express, parties sending the same, in the event of its being lost, lose nothing, as the express companies make everything good, and payments on drafts can be stopped and money drawn by the party owning the draft upon giving bonds. It is to be hoped that the lessons taught other business communities will not be learned by experience by our interior merchants. One of the fundamental principles of success is to do everything in a business manner and take no chances.

The steamer Montana left this morning for San Francisco.

The steamer Gussie Telfair, for Sound ports, is advertised to sail Saturday evening.

Owing to shortness of the days the O. S. N. Co. will not receive any freight after 5 o'clock P. M.

Steamer Ajax is in the river and will be up to-night. She brings 816 tons assorted merchandise.

The bark Niobe was towed up to-day by the Dixie Thompson and will commence loading to-morrow.

From reliable information from the country, we learn that farmers are very generally engaged in plowing. The increased acreage, compiled from reports from the different counties, will not be less than 50 ℘c. over last season, and with favorable seeding weather the increase as a whole will be near if not quite 100 ℘c. over last season's acreage. In Walla Walla valley the increased acreage will not be less than 25 ℘c. on last season. Our estimate of increased export of Wheat from this port next season (from Sept. 1st, 1872, to August 31st, 1873,) will be 100,000 tons larger or three times the amount that will be shipped this season. A large percentage of the Grain from Umpqua valley will find its way by railroad to this city for marketing.

From the Annual Report of the Commissioners of Customs of Great Britain we extract the following, as it gives reliable information not made public before:

The importation of wheat [illegible] in 1870 to 31,920,142 cwt., that of other [illegible] advanced to [illegible] cwt.; wheat meal and [illegible] to 4,614,466 cwt.; Indian cornmeal, 5,74[illegible] the total importation of breadstuffs 74,0[illegible] cwt., or 5,657,164 cwt. less than in 1869. The falling off in the imports of wheat is attributable to the loss of 2,800,000 cwt. in the supply from Germany, which, under all the circumstances, requires no explanation, to a diminished import by nearly 1,000,000 from the United States, to the almost total failure of the supply from Egypt, Illyria and the Danubian Provinces. In these last districts the stocks of wheat are said to have been kept back for want of the means of transit, the quantity received having fallen from 937,409 cwt. in 1869 to 132,332 cwt. in 1870. Russia, the great competitor with the United States in the corn market, increased her supply of wheat to England in 1870, as compared with 1869, by more than 1,000,000 cwt. Increased quantities of wheat were also sent from British North America. Of other kinds of corn the importation of oats very largely increased, and that of barley and Indian corn diminished. The whole supply of these other kinds in 1870 exceeded that of wheat, whereas, in 1869 it fell short of it.

MARKET REVIEW.

BREAD—Bakers advanced prices to-day ½c all round. Quotable Soda, 7½c; Picnic, 7½c; Butter, 7½; Jenny Lind, 14½c; Ginger [illegible], 10½c; Pilot, extra, 6c; Medium, 5½c; Navy, 4½c.

WHEAT—Market is weaker to-day. Buyers not so anxious to make purchases, while sellers are offering lots freer and would, to make sales, make concessions. The steamer Ajax brought some coin which will, if buyers wish to make purchases, allow cash purchases being made again, although the amount is so small that it will be disbursed in two or three days. We continue our quotations for fair to choice at $2 25@2 35 ℘ ctl with sacks; without sacks from 14@16c less. Straight lots (1,000 centals and upwards) of prime can be placed at higher figures.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering [illegible] a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system? Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and the [illegible] eruptions, disqualifying them for the [illegible] pleasures of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In [illegible] thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies [illegible] they are curable and cured, [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his speciality [illegible] years, and who is certain to cure the most in[illegible] any injurious drugs [illegible] important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, [illegible] the many pretended doctors who infest [illegible] publishing their skill in curing all diseases in [illegible] days, imposing upon the public by using the names of [illegible] physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confusion of ideas, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, [illegible] blushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, cough, [illegible] sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected. [illegible] is a new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are aware of being under any of these fearful maladies, should not fly to the sacred responsibility resting upon them before taking the steps to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give every patient a written instrument [illegible] to effect a radical and permanent cure, [illegible].

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars [illegible] letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, [illegible] of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen [illegible] lazy too work at their trades. Some are [illegible], shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes [illegible] their former occupations in it. [illegible] directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to [illegible] is to make inquiry—it will cost you [illegible] and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising [illegible] in nine cases out of ten are bogus [illegible] any of them until you [illegible] Dr. Gibbon does not deem [illegible] titles, certificates, prefer [illegible] Gibbon will satisfy persons [illegible] his ability to treat diseases that [illegible] cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearny street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. [illegible] box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX [illegible] THE [illegible]

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. [illegible] that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT

Under a burning sun, where Bilious affections and Fevers of various descriptions [illegible], TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT has been successful beyond all parallel. Hence the physicians of the tropics give it their emphatic [illegible] prescribing it in preference [illegible] other aperient in [illegible]. The patients, of course, gladly [illegible] for this [illegible] preparation is one of the most delightful as well as mild and cooling cathartics chemistry have yet devised, and possesses every medical virtue of the far-famed German Seltzer Spa. It is a powder that only requires the addition of water to produce in an instant [illegible] effervescing beverage, as well as an invaluable [illegible]. Ask for and accept none but the genuine.
